what the Chancellor recommends is that the case should be remitted to the Chief Commissioner, who will make such enquiries as he may think necessary in the matter, and report upon which my orders are required. Mr Costello's own account of his services and the rules as to contribution on account of Foreign Service should be before him at the time. Sir,

In submitting for favorable consideration the accompanying petition from Mr. Costello, an Excise Inspector in the Mysore State, now a temporary Clerk on Rs 100 in the Commissioner's Office, Port Blair, praying that under the circumstances represented by him, the Mysore Government may be pleased either to grant him when he retires from the Service, a fractional part of pension in proportion to the amount of service he put in in Mysore, or to appoint him in the Judicial or Revenue department of the Mysore State, I have the honor to state that Mr. Costello knew to talk, read & write Kanarese very well when here. I believe he has not forgotten it. He is an European. I had every confidence that as he was extremely well-behaved and sober, with his educational

educational qualifications (being an undergraduate of the Madras University, besides passing Civil, Criminal, Revenue and Excise Examinations of the Mysore State) he would turn out as useful a Government servant even in the Revenue department as another Excise officer (Mr. Hayes) is now showing himself to be.

I have the honor to be.

DEWAN of MYSORE.

through the Excise Commissioner.

in Mysore

Sir,

I beg to submit the following brief history of my service under the Government of Her Highness the Maharani Regent of Mysore and would earnestly solicit that the modest supplication contained in it meet with your favourable consideration.

1. I entered the Excise Department of the Mysore Service in November 1889 and was posted to the Central Distillery at Bangalore where, except for the short period when I was employed in the Office of the Excise Commissoner, I served almost the whole of my term of nearly nine years. I was finally appointed Excise Supervisor of the Tumkur Range in July 1898.

2. Finding that the prospects of promotion in the ordinary course, considering my service, did not appear hopeful I was induced to accept a clerkship in the Office of the Chief Commissioner, Andaman and Nicobar Islands, on higher pay and free quarters with more favourable prospects of advancement. To enable me to take up my new appointment, and not knowing the circumstances of the Settlement, I applied for and was granted long leave by the Excise Commissioner, which I am at present availing myself of.

3. I made several futile attempts to have my service of nearly nine years under the Government of Mysore re-reckoned towards pension in British service but the Government of India are opposed to bearing the cost of any pension that may be earned for service rendered to a Foreign State. This leaves me at a great disadvantage. Service of nine years is too long a period to lose as not many persons are physically fit to render sufficient service to earn a full pension.

4. I have qualified in the following tests of the Mysore Local Service Examinations, all of which I succeeded in passing in the first class:-

I. Civil, Parts I and II,

II. Revenue,

III. Criminal, and

IV. Excise.

as a reference to the Excise Commissioner will show.

5. I was recommended for a Judicial or Revenue appointment in 1897, when Mr L. Ricketts, the then Excise Commissioner, testified to my qualifications and aptitude for these departments. The following entry in my Service Register will also bear out these facts.

"Has given entire satisfaction both in this Office "and at the Distillery. Is a suitable candidate "for the Judicial or Revenue Departments. is a "young man of promise."

6. Mr P. N. Purnayya, the present Excise Commissioner has always entertained a favourable opinion of me and if a reference be kindly made to this Officer, he will, I am sure, be pleased to state what he thinks of me.

7. I did not hear any more of the application submitted on my behalf for an appointment in the Judicial and Revenue Departments and concluded that it was not successful with the late Dewan Sir K. Sheshadri Iyer, but for what reasons I am unable to say.

3. For the above reasons therefore I would earnestly beg that you will be pleased to consider my application and grant one or other of the following concessions:-

I. That the Government of Mysore will, when the time for my retirement comes round, grant me a fractional part of pension in proportion to the amount of service I have put in, viz. 8 years and 10 months, or

II. The Government of Mysore be pleased to appoint me to the Judicial or Revenue Departments of the Mysore Service.

4 For this act of kindness I shall ever remain grateful

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

M Costello

General and Revenue Dept.

Sir,

With reference to your docket No.13341/337 of the 22nd Ultimo requesting me to report whether Mr.Costello formerly employed in the Excise Department in Mysore and now a Temporary clerk in the Commissioner's Office, Port Blair, is entitled to an pension for the service of 8 years and 10 months rendered in Mysore calculated in accordance with the rule of Proportion, I have the honor to state that as the case is not one of Foreign Service, or transfer as contemplated in Articles 337 & 338 of the Mysore Service Regulations, he is not entitled to the concession sought for, which if intended to be allowed as a special case can only be done with the mutual consent of both the Governments concerned.

The petition from Mr.Costello enclosed in your docket under reference is herewith returned.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Comptroller.

Dated 18th July 1902.

His letter no 5464/240
dated 6th March 1902, submitting for favourable consideration a petition from one Mr Costello, lately an Excise Inspector in the Impore service, now a temporary clerk in the Commr's Office, Port Blair praying for either the grant, ~~as a special case,~~ of a pensing proportionate to the period of service put in by him in Impore or for an appointment in the Rev or Judicial Depts of the State, ~~as a special case.~~

With reference to the above has the honor to state that special cases cannot be multiplied and that the pension question must be regulated by Rules. There is nothing to require special treatment. If there is a specific recommendation for any particular appointment at the disposal of Govt., the matter will be considered.
